Key West Womenfest 2021

As the Mayor of Key West, welcome to our beautiful, inclusive island. We are so pleased that you have joined us for this year's Womenfest celebration and we are going to work hard to make this a memorable visit for you.

I know that there are so many incredible Womenfest events planned for your week, but when you have a free moment immerse yourself in our laid back island life style. Snorkel our coral reef system or dive the Vandenberg. Stroll through one of the largest wood framed architectural districts in the United States, lunch at a neighborhood outdoor cafe and enjoy the most beautiful sunsets that you will ever see at Mallory Square. Our nightlife "on and off" Duval Street is legendary with incredible live music, wine bars, cabarets, art galleries, fine dining and unique shopping within your 15 block walk.

Have a wonderful, memorable, safe week in our diverse community. Please remember that we are an environmentally sensitive area, so treat our island kindly. And please, follow the CDC guidelines to keep you Covid-free. Happy Womenfest!

With Kindest Regards,

Key West Womenfest 2021

As the City Manager of Key West, it is my pleasure to welcome you to our "beautiful little Island" and to the 2021 Womenfest celebration.

We are a diverse community with so much to offer for your special week of fun and relaxation. I encourage those of you visiting Key West to experience all the things that make Key West special.

I invite you to walk our downtown area, that includes our famous Duval Street, Whitehead Street, Petronia Street where you will enjoy music, sidewalk café dining, art galleries and our laid-back lifestyle. Take time to see the most beautiful sunset in the world at Mallory Square.

Again, welcome to Key West! We are extremely happy to have you here for Womenfest. Have a wonderful, safe week in our piece of paradise.

Warmest regards,

Patti McLauchlin

WELCOME FROM EVENT COORDINATOR, FRITZIE ESTIMOND

It is my pleasure to welcome all of you and welcome some of you back on behalf of the Key West Business Guild to Womenfest 2021! Since its introduction over 20 years ago, Key West Womenfest has grown to become a standard for celebrating all women ranging from all ages 21 and over. Couples, singles, and those in between are all welcome! We hope you'll join us annually in September to immerse yourself in what is dubbed the HOTTEST party for women in the Florida Keys! Thank you for being here!

Sincerely,
Fritzie Estimond

HISTORY of The BUSINESS GUILD

The Key West Business Guild (KWBG) was formed in 1978 to encourage summer tourism and to support Key West's gay community. The KWBG is one the nation's first LGBTQ destination marketing organizations. From a small original membership, it has grown to include more than 500 enterprises representing virtually every facet of the island's business community.

We are a not-for-profit organization devoted to promoting Key West to LGBTQ+ travelers. We provide comprehensive information about Gay Key West and promote our members organizations to a national and international travel market. This work helps to attract about 250,000 LGBTQ+ travelers here each year, earning Key West the well-deserved reputation as one of the most appealing gay-friendly destinations in the world.

The mission of the Key West Business Guild is to first, to promote LGBTQ+ travel to Key West through marketing and the promotion of special events – Key West Pride, Tropical Heat, Womenfest, and the Headdress Ball. Secondly, we support LGBTQ+-owned, managed, or friendly businesses. And the Guild works to strengthen the LGBTQ+ community's position within the local community by supporting relevant LGBTQ+ issues.

Today, the Key West Business Guild ranks among the nation's leading gay business associations, and its marketing efforts, supported by the Monroe County Tourism Development Council, incorporates a gay marketing specialist and an award-winning advertising campaign. The Guild also operates the Gay Key West Visitor Center located at 808 Duval. Walk-in to find a warm welcome and an informative introduction to the island, events, local businesses, and area attractions.

The HISTORY of womenfest keywest by SUSAN KENT

Who started Key West's Women's Week?

- In 1986, Walt Marlowe of the Key West Business Guild approached local entrepreneur Lynn Parker and a few other local women with the idea of hosting a women's week in Key West, after hearing of similar events in gay and lesbian resort destinations like the Russian River and Provincetown.
- Meetings were held at the new lesbian bar on Applerouth Lane, the 416 Café, owned by Jean Colton, Mary Quinn, and Deborah (Stretch) Frew.
- The group named the event "Women In Paradise."
- Events included cocktail parties, snorkel excursions, a play, a golf tournament at the Key West Golf Club, and a Ms. Key West contest. Yes, even a wet T-shirt contest!
- In 1993, the Guild turned the event over to Vicki Weeks, who had previously chaired the event.
- Breaking with tradition, she moved the event to July, 1993.

The year of two Women's Weeks in Key West!

- Jacqueline Harrington, who had worked on the Women In Paradise steering committee realized that there would still be women coming to Key West in September, so she decided to hold a second women's week that year.
- She named the event WomenFest Key West.
- In 1999, after the death of her mother, Jacqueline announced that she was canceling WomenFest.
- The Atlantic Shores stepped in to keep the event going.
- When the decision was made to close the Shores in May of 2007, the Business Guild was asked to take charge of the event once again.
- The Guild hired Rebecca Tomlinson to produce the event and the event was marketed as the "Southernmost Party for Lesbians and Their Friends."

The Southernmost Hotel hosted the WomenFest Key West Welcome Center for September of 2008.

WomenFest Key West has continued to evolve, just as this wonderful organization has continued to adapt to our changing world, but the Guild still needs the support of our community to produce events like WomenFest.
